Where Do I Go For Help?

There are many different people available and willing to help you with any worries and difficulties you may experience. These may include homesickness, health worries, bereavement, work crises, relationship problems, home tensions, inappropriate relationships or bullying.

One of the best ways of dealing with problems is to share them with someone you can trust. It is a sign of strength and common-sense to do this.

You will often seek and receive help from your Housemaster or Housemistress, the Chaplain, your Tutor or your House Matron.

The Senior Nurses, or their Assistants are on duty 24 hours a day in The Health Centre. It is necessary, however, to observe the published times for routine surgery matters. The nurses can arrange consultations with the doctor who in turn can draw on the full range of specialist medical treatment.

There are other members of staff such as the Office and Shop Assistants who are ready to help.

The Chaplain lives on campus and is used to helping with all manner of concerns. Outside of normal rounds, he can be contacted confidentially via the [locked] letter box in the outside door of the Athens Room or at his home on 0118 984 3034.

The Headmaster lives centrally and can usually be found in his study most evenings.

The Second Master can usually be found in his office (0118 984 7403) or be contacted either at home on 0118 9844933 or on 07980 802820.

The Pastoral Welfare Committee meets once a month to address matters of general concern. You are represented by a member of your Division and year.

However, there might well be occasions when you wish to talk to someone else. Here are a few suggestions of people you could talk to in confidence:

Mrs Bond She is in school from 08:15 to 18:00 Monday to Friday. Her teaching room is SA03. She can also be contacted at home (0118 984 5297) and is willing to come up and talk to you at any time.

Mrs Kudlac Her teaching room is EL1. She may also be contacted at home in Little Croft (next to St George; 0118 984 4062)

Chris Gothard Chris Gothard is an experienced young people's counsellor whom you can talk to in confidence. She is available from 13:30-15:00 on Mondays in the Health Centre. You can book an appointment through the Health Centre or Mrs Bond or just turn up.

Peer Mentoring You may feel that your problem or concern may be best dealt with by a fellow student. Peer mentoring is a new initiative in the College which has been set up to help students with concerns and anxieties that occur in the everyday school environment. A group of fifth and sixth formers have been specially trained by the school counsellor, Chris Gothard. If you would like to find out more about this additional support, e-mail peer.mentoring@pangcoll.co.uk.

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Under some circumstances you may wish to make a formal complaint in writing, especially if an informal complaint has not been satisfactorily resolved.

1. Hand in a formal written complaint [with OR without telling the person you are complaining about], giving as many details as you can, to your Housemaster, the Second Master, the Chaplain, or the Headmaster. Mark it "COMPLAINT".
2. It will then be given to the Headmaster with whom, or with a person whom he chooses, you will be asked to talk the matter through. You may invite another pupil or a member of staff of your choice to come to this meeting with you.
3. It will then be decided whether or not to refer your complaint to a panel consisting of FOUR or more of the following: the Headmaster, the Second Master, the Chaplain, a Director of Studies, a former Housemaster, a Governor.
4. Your complaint will be taken seriously and handled promptly. The meeting with the Headmaster will take place within one week of your complaint being formally made. His decision over how best to proceed will then be made known to you within forty-eight hours.

If you still feel that your problem has not been dealt with or you would rather talk to someone outside school, you could ring the following people and organisations.
